

Draw Bench Operator – 1st Shift

Capital Steel & Wire is seeking a Level 1 Draw Bench Operator to join our team. Our 1st shift operators work four 10-hour shifts, 6:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Monday – Thursday. Essential functions and responsibilities for this position include:

- Operate saw - load and unload material, set up for specific jobs, monitor orders as they are processed
- Operate wheelabrator - keep loaded, input tags, keep blast cleaned up
- Operate chamfer
- Operate fork truck and overhead crane
- Maintain proper paperwork as required by each specific job
- Perform other duties as assigned

Experience and Qualifications

High school diploma or GED required. General computer experience and ability to read and follow written instructions required. Ability to perform basic math functions and accurately use tape measure required. Fork truck and overhead crane experience strongly preferred. Strong mechanical aptitude and ability to measure and interpret readings using caliper and micrometer desired for level 2 draw bench operator training.

Physical and Environmental Requirements

Requires ability to be on your feet and excessive walking of facility floor for 10 consecutive hours, and other physical activity such as bending, reaching and twisting. Requires ability to lift 15-50 pounds repeatedly and exposure to machinery and loud noises.

To Apply

Send resume, cover letter and compensation history to employment@capitalsteel.net with “Draw Bench Operator” in the subject line.